What is Medical Indemnity Insurance?

Aon can arrange Medical Indemnity Insurance that provides:

- Claims protection
  - Comprehensive, contractual cover for the costs of investigating, defending and resolving covered claims.
- Individual pricing
  - Pricing that is tailored to your circumstances.
- Legal protection
  - Expert support with GMC regulatory matters, Coroners' Inquests and Fatal Accident Inquiries – for both private and NHS practice.
- 24/7 medico-legal advice
  - Expert help around the clock when you need support with complaints, claims or medico-legal queries.
- No claims recognition
  - Renewal pricing that recognises your claims experience.
- Continuous protection for past and future claims
  - Ability to include a retroactive start date and an extended reporting period to your policy to ensure there are no gaps in cover.
- 25 year extended reporting period benefit
  - Provided for claims for up to 25 years and free of charge if a policy is held for over four years before retirement.
- Nil excess
  - All costs are the insurer's responsibility.
- Public liability protection
  - Financial protection when an accident occurs at your practice.
- Data liability protection
  - Assistance in managing allegations of failing to comply with Data Protection Acts including investigations by Information Commissioner's Office.
- Vicarious liability protection
  - Financial protection for you when an incident occurs within the healthcare team you supervise.
- Significant life event
  - The policy can be suspended in the instance of a significant life event, such as maternity leave, which stops you from practising for over 3 months.
